

Mathematics Eligibility Test Details

1) Mode of Test: Online Proctored

2) Duration of Test: 120 Minutes

3) Type of Questions: Objective – Multiple Choice Questions (40 nos.) [+4 marks for correct answer / -1 mark for incorrect answer / 0 marks for skipped question]

4) Test Date & Time Options - An applicant can choose any one option from below:

- <TBD>

5) Test Fee:

- Citizens of India: INR 750/-
- Citizens of Other Countries: USD 10/-

6) Topics that will be evaluated in the Online Mathematics Eligibility Test: <Click here>

7) Online resources that could help prepare for the Mathematics Eligibility Test: <Click here>

8) Number of attempts: Applicants will get two attempts to pass the Mathematics Eligibility Test (subject to exam schedule). Kindly note that applicants who decide to avail another attempt on the test will need to register and pay the Mathematics Eligibility Test fee again. Any applicant who is unable to get minimum qualifying marks can apply again for the future cohorts as announced by BITS Pilani and then take the Mathematics Eligibility Test again.

9) Minimum Technology Infrastructure Requirements for taking the Online Mathematics Eligibility Test: <Click here>

10) How to register for the Online Mathematics Eligibility Test:

You will receive an email asking you to register for the Mathematics Eligibility Test.

On the Registration Page, you will primarily be asked

- To register for the exam, choose your preferred Date & Time option for the exam.
- Pay the applicable Mathematics Eligibility Test Fee (INR 750/- for Citizens from India and USD 10/- for Citizens of Other countries).
- You will also be asked to scan and upload any government issued ID card that has your photograph and name clearly visible.
- Please note that once the date and time has been selected for the exam by the applicant, it cannot be changed subsequently.

After you have registered for the Online Mathematics Eligibility Test, you will receive an email from BITS Pilani that will confirm your registration for the Online Mathematics Eligibility Test and inform you about subsequent next steps to take the exam.